

When Katie went to Aunty's house,
Greedy Cat went too,
but he was not allowed inside.

“I keep my house very clean,” Aunty said.

“No dirty paws inside!

No fur on the furniture!

Animals stay outside.”

“Greedy Cat’s not just an animal,” said Katie.

“He’s my best friend, and he’s not dirty. At home, he can come inside whenever he wants.”

“He’s a cat, and a cat is an animal,” said Aunty firmly.
“And this is not his home. This is my home,
and I don’t want animals inside my nice, clean house.
He’ll have to stay in the backyard with the chooks.”

