chucka

In the hazy blue light, just before the sun rises, I hear Farmer Nick's truck approaching, clanking and vibrating through metal- chucka chucka chucka. I hear footsteps and a gate opening.

"Up you get"
It's the start of my day.
Cockle doodle doo!
The roosters shout good morning!
